PREPARING FOR THE HIGH HOLIDAYS: A JEWISH MEDITATION WORKSHOP

Join Rabbi Sherry Hirsch as she discusses this ancient Hilquiah process. We will explore the theme of life’s transitions and what it means in our own lives. She makes no foolproof process that will turn out well, but she will show us a way to navigate our transitions, including writing meditations, to reflect on the past, look forward, and prepare for the High Holy Days in a deep and meaningful way. Open to beginners and experienced practitioners.

Taste of Foundations of Jewish Family Living

Foundations for Jewish Family Living is a new learning opportunity for parents that provides a thought-provoking encounter with the core values of Judaism. At a time in a family’s life when a child is asking questions about his or her Jewish heritage, this rich learning experience provides you with the knowledge, the language, and the confidence to be a teacher to your own children and support Jewish learning at home.
